Have you ever been in a museum and viewed an old, broken piece of pottery that had lain in a tomb for centuries? Although it was assembled carefully, you could not help but notice that many fragments were missing. Nonetheless, its form was easily recognizable, despite the missing shards. These are my stories. Fragments from Vietnam, compiled after many decades of lying in the dust of the tomb called Vietnam. Not all the fragments are here. Some are still missing or lay buried over there...where they should be.
