NASTO: The Fall Edward Carl

Now Natty knows that it wasn't a dream. He did actually fall through a mirror and find himself in The Land. But now he is back home and his journey across The Land is behind him. Or is it? Before he can truly accept the reality that his grandfather was from another world where Natty is considered The Savior, Natty is taken back to The Land. Once again he must face The Great Darkness, which has now caused great devastation to The Land in its attempt to destroy all that is good. But first Natty must find the water, ground, air and fire crystals so that they may join with his grandfather's crystal to become The One Crystal. He was successful in his last visit to The Land. But is the task now before him one that he can achieve or is it too daunting even for Natty and his new powers?
