Alan and Kim are rivals. They are also lovers and colleagues. Alan feels justified in being a player because he still treats Kim like his woman, although they are just "kicking it." Kim wants more. She deserves more and she thinks that asking for more is not just about commitment. It's also about respect. Alan thinks that Kim is simply Ms. Right now. He later discovers that she could quite possibly Mrs. Right. After missing Kim's presence, laugh and smile, coupled with an attempt on his life Alan tries to get Kim back. There are just two problems. Kim has moved on and Kim is a woman that is fed up! It's amazing how we don't truly appreciate someone until they are gone.
