Mountain Girl Kelly Shugrue

Sadie thought she was happy with her life until one day she has enough and walks out of her job. She finds herself in the mountains where she spent her childhood, much different than her life in New York. Her neighbor, Jack, is a true mountain man and agrees to help her figure out the cabin where her Grandparents used to live. He can't decide if he wants her to stay or go. This has been his mountain alone for years and he didn't look forward to having a helpless city girl find her way on the mountain. As he teaches her about the cabin, he starts to learn more about himself and what he wants, but is Sadie the one, and is she willing?
