With our everyday hectic work lives and busyness beyond our control, we are often pressed for time and tend to ignore some of our basic needs.

These basic needs refer to the way we communicate with each other and often find ourselves lost in translation.

Especially in this day and age of digital communication, where everybody has a mobile phone or computer, people tend to forget to talk to each other verbally and prefer to either message each other or communicate through emails.

The book is aimed at giving you a true picture of how the concept of small talk will help improve your life by and also encourage you to give your best when it comes to verbal communication.
