A Young Man's Wisdom Rueben Nathaniel Brock

Rueben Brock's memoir, A Young Man's Wisdom, offers inspiration and insight for men attempting to navigate the difficult world of manhood. Through stories and anecdotes about his early recollections of his father, his father's death, and the experience of growing up without a father, Brock unlocks the misconceptions and pressures that society places on the male psyche. In the absence of strong male guidance, Brock discovers other sources of enlightenment about manhood, raising children, and finding happiness in life.
