Best Practices for Structuring Trusts and Estates provides an authoritative, insider's perspective on key strategies for structuring trusts and developing estate plans to meet client needs. Featuring partners from law firms across the nation, these experts guide the reader through the different phases of the estate planning process and the key considerations for each phase. These top lawyers reveal their advice for understanding the unique concerns facing today's clients, as they discuss how best to manage estate planning when there is uncertainty about the federal estate tax, continuous changes in family dynamics, and an increasing number of clients who travel frequently or are non-citizens. From evaluating structures for a new trust to modifying an existing trust, these authors stress the importance of structuring a trust to meet specific client goals. Additionally, these leaders comment on ways to mitigate the threat of online estate planning options available to clients. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to navigating this ever-evolving area of law.

Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives and lawyers (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies and firms nationwide.
