Kate and Bradley have finally confessed their feelings for each other in more ways than one in TEMPT ME. But when Bradley's late night adventure catches up with him the following morning, a dangerous circumstance threatens his life. But Kate comes to the rescue just in time.

When Kate has to go back home to South Africa to defend her thesis, she finds herself in heated waters amongst another scandal. But Bradley is there for her just in time.

Finally, together at last in the tropical islands of Maldives on a private yacht, away from the limelight and world of fame, Kate and Bradley experience what it is to finally be alone at last and to freely explore their love until a grand interruption in world-wide proportions shakes Kate's entire world upside down.

But instead of everything falling apart, her life actually is falling together. With him finally.

This 24k word novella has a very happy ending and is the exciting conclusion of TEMPT ME!

Please enjoy a special bonus book at the end of this book for your reading pleasure! Stepbrother No More. It is a stand alone novelette with a happy ending.
