Isabella Guitierrez could not have known how much a seemingly routine voyage to France from her native Spain would change her life.

When the ship she's on is attacked by pirates, Isabella is bound, kidnapped and delivered to a mysterious stranger. Held captive in his home, she tries to escape, but to no avail.

As the days go by, Isabella learns more about her charming captor, the sly and confident Duke Richard Clement, and begins to fall under his spell.

Meanwhile, her father is doing everything he can to secure her release. But by the time Isabella is free to go, she's no longer sure she wants to.

Will she return home to Spain? Or will she stay in England with the wicked Duke?
