Pussy, snatch, rug, vagina, vulva, twat, tunnel of love, clit, cunt, or more poetically - rosebud... there are more than a thousand names capturing the essence of "femininity" which get men forever excited. Its terms are just as numerous as the appearance of the models shown in this book of erotic art photography. As object of desire, they all strive toward a universal beauty ideal and yet they cater to entirely different tastes. Honest and provocative, they take the viewer and lead him into the sensually enticing world of the female genitalia. It presents itself passionately, self-assured, young, and beautiful right at the heartbeat of life. In his latest work, the erotic art photographer Martin Krake focuses on the most private and most fascinating part of a woman's body. As witnesses of infinite beauty and great variety of the female grotto of pleasure and passion, Krake's revealing and artful images give physical dimensions to male phantasies. The uncensored eye of the photographer opens a source of provocative inspiration and it incorporates an ultimate erotic promise.
