Sin City Greed James C. Molet

Fifteen months ago, financier Carlton F. Morrison III started stealing money from his clients. Now, unbeknownst to him, a small group of retirees are hip to his game. After receiving questionable quarterly statements and a worthless check, the group of retirees, led by Charles and Vallory, plot to recover their stolen life savings ... their only hope for avoiding destitution and despair in retirement. Faced with daunting challenges, the group is not ready to become part of the statistics of older Americans ripped off by con men. Drawing on their ingenuity and resourcefulness - and a relentless, dogged refusal to give up - they steadfastly confront one obstacle after the next. Will their resourcefulness and cunning be enough to overcome the insidious scourge of greed? In the heat of the Las Vegas Valley, American Greed meets Ocean's Eleven.
