In a dark Manhattan alley, a young woman suddenly collapses from a brain hemorrhage. The statistics say it's rare to have happened to someone so young and healthy, yet all signs point to natural causes. But when Kyle Vine, the man she was supposed to meet that night, learns she wasn't the only victim, he knows there's something more going on and soon discovers a mysterious link to the sudden success of a journeyman pitcher for the New York Yankees.

As the lethal brain bleeds continue to strike, Kyle and the woman's eccentric uncle work together to unravel a mystery unlike any the world has ever seen in order to stop a ruthless killer from striking again.

Stephen Paul's debut supernatural suspense thriller, The Perfect Game, is a fast-paced gripping ride that will continue to keep readers on the edge of their seats while trying to figure out who's behind the deadly episodes, how they're doing it and, perhaps most shocking of all, why.

PRAISE FOR THE PERFECT GAME:

"The Perfect Game is supernatural thriller writing at its best. . . . immersing readers in a quagmire of emotions and cat-and-mouse moves," D. Donovan, MIDWEST BOOK REVIEW
