Some women want to be spanked. Some don't.

But whether punishment is for pleasure or correction, the eroticism shines through in this collection of story by author E.M. Downing.

In "Pursuit of Punishment," 50-year-old Diane finds herself with a dilemma. All her life she's dreamed of being spanked but has always been too shy to explore her fantasies. And then along comes the Internet and with it a whole world of possibilities, including a lot of men more than willing to pull her panties down and spank her for real. But is it too much of a good thing? Diane finds that not all spanking partners are what they're advertised to be, and the path to Mr. Spanking Right is, for this MILF, full of twists and turns.

In "Deception and Discipline," Heather realizes too late that spending a couple of her weeks with her trouble-making friend Jennifer comes with a price. Jennifer's parents believe in spanking, and when Heather finds herself caught up in her pal's scandals, she must share in the over-the-knee, bottom-reddening consequences.

Who doesn't love a story of workplace discipline? In "Policies, Procedures and Punishment," an office worker finds out that her boss is old-fashioned, so old-fashioned, in fact, that a file in the wrong place leads to a trip over the lap of an uncompromising -and strict - disciplinarian.
