The End of the Beginning Martha Lopez

This is the story of a Mexican family who lived on the outskirts of Chiapas, Mexico. They lived in ignorance, suffering with normal hidden desires to uncover just what if there was some way to escape from that harsh life of suffering from being poor and old and seeing a normal desire to look for a way out of all troubles that man must endure in order to just live a so-called normal life.

From the beginning of time, man has searched for the secrets of eternal youth. There has to be an answer to that. There are old women's tales and wizards who tell us that such tales are not made up for nothing. There are hidden secrets that only a few ever venture into and realize that entrance into the forbidden secrets of the ultimate goal of the passage of eternity. At a very high price, they meet a fate that can never, ever again be reversed.

This is a story about just such an event. It can also happen to you, but be prepared to forever be a slave to forever. As the end of the old, you can never, ever return, and it can make no difference to you if you're willing to take a chance and let it happen to you.
