Who's Got Your Back? Michael Slater

Who's Got Your Back? These are four words spoken together as a phrase that holds a tremendous amount of truth and power. I am convinced that many have heard the phrase, yet have not grasped the full meaning and purpose behind it. How would you answer the question of who's got your back? A battle exists for you, your marriage and your family. Life is challenging at all ages and phases and we cannot make it on our own. We need the support of others to know in our hearts that we are not alone. This is the strength that can enable one to continue to press on and face difficult situations and challenges. This book and the teachings is a journey for all, especially men, towards encouragement of one another, finding strength in God and discovering purpose within our lives. My prayer is that the depth and meaning of who's got your back, would impact you and your life. Your back can be covered.
