Are you a gay Christian? Are you a Christian who fears you have lost a loved one to the LGBT community? As an out, loud, and proud lesbian Michelle believed in sex ... and a lot of it! She changed her beliefs about God and the universe only slightly less regularly than her shirt, and slightly more frequently than the changing of the seasons. She encountered well-meaning but hurtful Christians as well as liberal Christians and many others as her hunger led her to search out any and all ideas of God that would accept her as she was—not asking for change. Journey with Michelle into and back out of the LGBT lifestyle. Find out why she has such a passion for outreach and evangelism to the LGBT community, committed to reach the lost and hurting—even those who don't know they are. What made her change her mind enough to change her life? Open the pages of Prodigal Pursued and find out!
