Powered Up--Ilsa has spent the last few years using a disability to help her people from her hospital bed. What they read as seizures is her possessing anything mechanical and it isn't until a Kozue demands her attention and takes her away from her world, her home, and her need to hide.

Armed and Armoured--Kahlia lives for design. Her ability to phase into the objects around her and control them is occasionally useful but mostly something to conceal from those around her. Rupture helps her out of a stressful occasion and understands at once that she is more than meets the eye.

Celestial Storm--Andra enjoyed her life as a courier until the day a celestial storm took up residence in her body. Now she can't control radiation or anything to do with her new occupant. Nich, Avatar for Udell, works with her to help her gain control and direct herself to a new future.

Resurrecting Flame--Exhausted by tunnel her people to freedom, Jenya rests and heads toward an inner light when that light turns into a flame that brings her screaming back to reality. Flame sees a woman waiting to give her all and he wants all she will give.

Guarding Pax--A talent for sedation brings Tricia to the Sector Guard when she loses control and endangers those around her. Guardian takes her in hand and helps her to deal with the metamorphosis into something she didn't know existed.
