Sheltered Deliverance Emily Freeman

Nightmares, religion gone awry and a husband with a secret that is slowly coming to light - they all combine in this powerful story. Crystal Houston is being tortured by recurring dreams that she believes are pointing to something too close to her. What her reporter's inquisitiveness leads her to will test her faith, her love for her husband and may even threaten her life. Her investigation will uncover a world of violence and rampant sexual abuse cloaked in religion. More importantly her investigation may reveal that her world is dangerously aligned with what she's found out.
