Meet Sarah Wainwright, she lost her husband, just a week shy of their first anniversary in an accident at the glass factory in downtown Pittsburgh. She was once a happy and contented wife, but now here she is. A twenty-year-old widow, a baby on the way, with no prospects and no income. She felt shattered and broken beyond repair. Far from home with no way to support herself, no relatives to ask for help. She felt hopeless until she saw an ad for mail-order bride.

What kind of man had she agreed to marry?

Could she count on Joshua to accept her child, even though it wasn't his?

Could she possibly allow herself to love someone she barely knew when Zebulon had been everything she had ever wanted?

Get ready to join Sarah's journey to the West. You'll get to know Zebulon, her deceased husband who had wonderful sense of humor, always joking around and making her laugh back then. Millie Hansen, Sarah's neighbor and best friend, who stood by her during her darkest times. And Joshua Mayfair, a former bounty hunter now a farmer, who she perceived fierce and intimidating at first.
