Love's Learning Curve (Volume 1) Felicia Lynn

College for most girls comes with a rite of passage to make mistakes, to live fearlessly, and to experience the real world while not under a microscope, having every move made scrutinized, criticized and worst of all, publicized. As the only child of the governor of South Carolina, and potential US Presidential candidate, Charlotte Maryland Baker is not granted the luxury of the typical college experience. Tyler Stone lives for baseball and everything that comes with it, and has the stats to prove he's an exceptional player. The only place Tyler Stone feels he matters is on the pitching mound. Without the distraction of dating, or making friends he can concentrate on the one thing that makes him feel complete – Baseball. Opposites attract, so they say, but what WILL happen when these two opposites collide?
