Tarbell Course in Magic, Vol.7 Harry Lorayne

Harlan Tarbell was the pre-eminent magician and magic teacher from the 1920s to his death in 1960. He taught classes all over North America, touching the lives of countless magicians - professional, amateur, and beginner. There is no one in any magic club who has not at some time or other learned from the legacy of Dr. Harlan Tarbell. There are many who lay the credit for their entire professions to the "Tarbell Course", the 7-volume storehouse of magical knowledge, painstakingly illustrated in great detail, with a text so crystal clear in simple English that students were doing the tricks almost as they read about them. Dr. Tarbell had two great natural talents that fit perfectly with his acquired talent of magic -- he drew like an artist and wrote with amazing clarity. Volume 7, lessons 84 to 91 in the course series. includes wonderfully clear directions for doing over 200 magic tricks, organized in the following chapters: More Mental Magic, Card Magic, Rope Magic, Novelty Magic, Money Magic, Silk Magic, Illusions, and Late Arrivals. This final volume in the 7-volume set was published posthumously by magician Harry Lorayne in 1978. This volume includes Lorayne's moving tribute to the Greatest Magician, Dr. Harlan Tarbell.
