Trampling of the Weeds Lajuanda Lilease G

Set in present day Harlem, New York. A family must come to grips with its dysfunction. Zemirah has the support of friends, but is conflicted on if and how she should continue keeping them in her life, while moving forward into adulthood. Clifford, a strong young man battling Agoraphobia is ready to be seen as a man and be independent, but how, if he does not know how to get out of his own way? Ne'Shama the oldest sibling is trapped wanting to do more for her family, but when she has already been stretched to the limits mentally and physically, she is challenged with what to do next. Consequently, what follows are a series of events which land the youngest, Zemirah in situations similar to the family she vowed never to become. When everything around them seems to be spiraling out of control, who will step up to save this family and at what costs?
