The eagle is the swiftest of birds in action, flies farthest when hungry and soars highest in storms. It is an amazing bird...and so are you! Drawing upon the life of an eagle I have come up with inspiring and practical lessons. These lessons apply to you, relationships, marriage, your work, business or church. You will learn how to have an eye for opportunity, engage in relationships, what to do when you feel tired and how to ride the storms of life. In this quick read I have packed 10 key lessons with a summary of key learning points and a declaration. The purpose of this book is to give you key insights, principles and anecdotes that you can easily relate to and apply to every area of your life. I use different examples, imagery, symbolism and simple case studies to illustrate the points. This book came from my spirit, and I would like it to touch your spirit.
