When Sage Forrester meets Aussie hunk, Cameron Wilson, she doesn't realize he's the man with the huge package on a billboard in Times Square. They share an instant connection that neither of them can deny—much to the dismay of Sage's fiancé, Nick, who is willing to break the law to stop Sage from leaving him.

But when a disaster strikes that is outside any of their control, attitudes quickly change and Sage is forced to choose between a life of luxury with one of the richest men on the planet, or a life of hardship with a very damaged man without a future.

To her, the choice is simple, but when the men in her life have other plans she finds herself needing to fight harder than she's ever had to in her privileged life. Will she find her happily ever after, or will they let their changed circumstances get in the way?
