Plot Synopsis

In this much anticipated DVD by the world's most translated living author, we learn to get clear on what you love, and get rid of the fears that stand in your way. Trans-Siberian Express takes us on a magical journey with the master of contemporary literature, Paulo Coelho. On this legendary train, connecting Moscow with Vladivostok, Coelho honors Russian author, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn. The Soviet government exiled Solzhenitsyn in 1974 because of his writings, such as The Gulag Archipelago, which made the world aware of the government's labor camp system. When he returned to Russia in 1994, he re-entered through Vladivostok, the final stop on the Trans-Siberian Express route and Coelho's ultimate destination.

Sinopsis Esta magna producción, nos muestra una travesía mágica en la cual, el gran maestro de la literatura contemporánea, Paulo Coelho, se aventuró a viajar en el legendario tren que conecta Moscú con Vladivostok (El Expreso Transiberiano) en honor a escritor ruso Aleksandr Solzenicyn, autor de "El Archipiélago Gulag", quien vivió en el exilio y al regresar a su patria ingresó a través de Vladivostok, donde justamente es la última etapa de El Expreso Transiberiano, destino obligado esta vez también para Paulo Coelho. Viajando a través de territorios mágicos y a la vez enigmáticos, llenos de historia y encanto, Coelho recorre Siberia a bordo de un tren, justo 20 años después de haber atravesado la ruta de Santiago de Compostela, y esta vez, además, en homenaje a su gran amigo Solzenicyn.
