Immortal Berliner: In the Bosom of the High John (A Chronicle of Kings) (Volume 2) Garnette Lockhart

This second book in the series, A Chronicle of Kings picks up eighteen years after the ending of Lala King's first person narrative, Pitch Weed.

We are introduced to the voice of Berlin Balmaine King, who takes over as narrator for his grandmother "La," and presents himself as a keeper of truths.

Berlin brings us penetrating observations, but opaque self-examination as he recalls the influence his family wields in the aftermath of Christmas Eve 1854.

Discover more about the Third Eye Tabernacle of the Shackled in Christ Jesus and how the "True Path" movement grew from local folklore in North Abaddon, New York to engage some of the brightest minds of the time.
