Love Unexpected Anne Leigh

A Best Selling Contemporary Romance Novel

There are times, when you least expect it, where fate hands you the one person you cannot live without.

Sedona Mackenzie had her perfect life perfectly planned; down to the coffee that she drank, the curfew that she lived by, and formulas that she solved to release stress. She had everything figured out, in a neat, little timeline. Then, fate chose to intervene in the form of a chance meeting with a guy who stirs unknown emotions inside her, leaving her reeling and wanting for more.

Zander Zobowski is not your typical college jock. For one, he's a good guy. Second, he's pretty smart. And, he's level-headed. The farthest thing on his mind was smacking into a woman who may just be his undoing.

This is not your typical bad boy meets good girl love story. This is a story between two people who are great on their own. But, with each other, they are absolutely perfect.

Intended for readers over 17. Book may/may not adhere to a country's college football guidelines.
