The Only Way is Murder (The Blingwood Chronicles Book 1) Scott Kelly

When former reality TV star Michael Wrong is found floating face down in the gold-plated swimming pool at the family mansion, struggling private eye Danny Luper is called in to investigate his death. Danny soon finds himself caught up in a web of intrigue enveloping the once quiet town of Brentwood. Eventually, Luper uncovers the truth: that Michael Wrong paid the ultimate price for fame.

Written in the form of 33 short and easily digestible chapters, The Only Way is Murder follows Danny Luper's investigation over four days as he interacts with stars from the reality show Blingwood (inspired by the hit ITV 2 show "The Only Way is Essex - TOWIE), on a mission to track down Michael Wrong's killer.

The Only Way is Murder is a comedic take on the excesses of the "Essex lifestyle", combining the characteristics of a traditional detective novel with a comedic, almost parodic style.
