Zany "word-weirdness" entrapped within a surreal, stream-of-consciousness "imagery-gelatin." Suggested for mature readers. (Author's note: Most of the art and some of the text is directly taken from "A Tiger Against Thought." The difference is this: I took out about ten pages of art, added about ten totally new pages of art, and massaged the "story" quite a bit. I think the result is substantially better than what I had with "Tiger," but I'm going to keep that one available for purchase as well... Beware, though, that "Tiger" has a lot of "adult content"... Also, there was a lot of text from "Tiger" that didn't make it into "Lightning Jim," so I will definitely be drawing on some of those concepts in future comics so they get their chance to "be seen".)
