Poetry helps in a vast majority of ways for any member of society. Good, bad, happy, sad – everyone will find poems help in their mind. Writing these poems and fighting to regain my trust in other people, took a lot of the pain inside away. Everyone has bad times, some even traumatic. The poems inside this book helped me to come to terms with some of the incidents in my life and give me hope, and maybe something to look to the future for. They're not all dark poems; some are funny, some are happy, some are sad, some show courage, and some are inspirational. This collection of poems was given to a very special person, who said, “You should write a book,” and so here it is: One Hundred Kisses for Toni.
