Saving the Saved peels back the body armor of the church to expose an American institution where nearly 50 percent of its organizations are devoid of a biblical worldview. The institutional church has offered a watered-down gospel, secular philosophies and theologies, and social justice projects, all at the expense of biblical discipleship. The result is a post-Christian America. After reading this book, you will understand how progressive thinking has infiltrated these churches and created a counterfeit religion that has put millions of Christians' faith at risk.

Saving the Saved is written for you, the Christian, who has put your faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. You have the right to know who you are in Christ and what it means to be a citizen in the kingdom of God now. Plus, Saving the Saved presents a compelling case for churches to make biblical discipleship the core of their ministries, and offers strategies for believers even if their churches choose to ignore this warning. So, if you have ever wondered if there is more to your faith than what your church is offering, you are right. There is more. Saving the Saved will help you know what to do about it.
