In the fall of that year, a girl in second grade of university, Luo Ruier, is attacked in the way of biking outside, so her life changes from then on.. Originally lively and outgoing, she hides into the photography world, and dedicates her time to work as a social work for a homeless shelter. Many years later, Bobby, an old man who used to live in the shelter, passes away, and his only legacy is a case of photos which he extremely valued and didnt permit any one to see. Appointed to sort out these photos, Luo Ruier is surprised to find that, the photo shooting skills and quality is excellent. Among them, there are some also famous portrait in the 1950s and 1960s, and her childhood neighbor and house. Because of curiosity and apology, Ruier begins to seek for Bobbys mysterious life story crazily. But the more important reason is that she identifies one photo in Bobby photos, taken in the soil road of Vermont, in which a girl dressed in black shorts, colorful sweater, is riding a bike alone from far way...
