Ecuador, At Last Philip Peereboom

The Third World War has dawned, the Chinese have control over travel and communication and the fates of a few individuals lie at the mercy of luck, judgement and discovery. Have you ever heard the expressions, 'things happen for a reason', or, 'what will be, will be'. Nothing could be closer to the truth on the long and sometimes perilous journey to their new life in Ecuador. From death and destruction, happiness and elation, secrets and lies, whether they choose their own path, or follow in another's footsteps, ultimately their final destination is already decided.
