When you want to do something good, sometimes you need to be a little bad.

Angelina Carr is a thief. Nick Aston is a corporate security consultant. When Nick asks Gina for her help, she's intrigued. Can she use her "skills" to bring down a shady businessman? The answer seems to be 'yes,' but as Gina and Nick get closer to the target they find themselves mixed up with a big-time mob boss.

Can they shut down the corrupt company, as well as bring down the dangerous don? If so, can they do it without exposing themselves to danger?

(This book is a 27,000 word novella, and is not romantic fiction.)
