You Say I'm Different, But God Says I'm Flawless Angela Armstrong

Growing up different is very tough for any child. The stares, the comments and even the bullying can take a toll on any child. Join Angela Armstrong as she shares a transparent and inspiring message of loving how you have been created and using it for the glory of God. This book is for anyone struggling with low-self-esteem, being different physically or mentally, depression or oppression. You just have that feeling of being misunderstood. You are fearfully and wonderfully made, and God took His time to create you. He made sure every part of your body was detailed and molded in His own image. Say it with me: 'I am BEAUTIFUL,' in spite of what the world may think. ~Psalm 139:13,14
