Each year more than 300 projects are undertaken by students in the Architecture Department of the École Polytechnique Fédérale (EPFL) in Lausanne. Although a considerable number of ideas and resources are developed in this centre for education and research, these projects have difficulty obtaining wider recognition outside the school. To remedy this, a jury of architects selected 39 student projects to be presented in this catalogue, which spotlights the range and diversity of the EPFLs courses in architectural design. The publication includes both awarded and shortlisted projects, along with numerous data, drawings, models and photographs.
