An enjoyable and informative memoir of young woman that one day learns that she can “see dead people”.

Journey with her through the fears, disbeliefs and struggles as she learns to accept her new talents and the challenges that they present. From the ghost of a woman appearing in her backseat while driving to the earthbound spirit of a little boy playing pranks around her house.

Delightfully filled with experiences and accounts of assisting several earthbound spirits to transition to the Light. The stories are warm, humorous and heart-felt. These stories will have you tearing up to laughing out loud with each turn of the page.

The reader explores what happens after death through colorful and charismatic spirits. Learn how these spirits came to become “ghosts”, then witness the tender, and often emotional, transition to the Light.

This book is a Must Read for anyone learning that they can hear or see ghosts and spirits.
