The Law Of the Emperor's New Clothes: Hand of God (Volume 2) Peter-Brian Andersson
Why macroevolution is a scientific fact when it's really a lie. Where did living things come from? Either it was by natural forces in evolution or it was by a supernatural creation. There are no other answers and whichever one it is will make your worldview. The science community operates by an assumption that evolution is a FACT. This book examines the evidence to tell a very different story. Biology, chemistry, cosmology, genetics, mathematics, paleontology and physics show the world was made. Take a look for yourself. Both sides of the argument are presented fairly for the reader to decide. The evolution-creation debate is so intractable that both sides are certain they are correct. How does that happen? And why is macroevolution a truth in science? The reason is a law that says a supernatural cannot be science and so cannot be true. This book shows you why evolution is a “scientific fact”, why evolution is nonetheless false, why there is objective evidence of a supernatural in the natural world, and what this whole argument says about who we are, where we came from and how we can know.
