This heartwarming story tells about an abandoned orphan and a spirited draft horse coming together to save lives and care for others. Readers will learn about the exciting world of fire horses and travel back in time to the early 1900s when these mighty animals were so dedicated and loyal that they would obediently pull huge fire wagons straight towards their greatest fear---the perilous ravages of fire! Learn how a young colt destined for life as a plow horse, through a twist of fate, becomes one of these incredible heroes. Filled with many historical facts and over 70 watercolor illustrations, CHRISTMAS MAJOR is much more than a Christmas story.
