The complete bundle of the Dead Girl Hands Trilogy.

Book 1: Awakening

Terra Wilcox was an average teenager. She had hopes, dreams, a future. One stray bullet changed all that. On the 16th of October, she is caught in the path of a stray bullet, which brings an end to her short lived life. Not long after her death, her school begins to be ravaged by attacks, said to be carried out by an unseen force.

Now Amber Bennet must find a way to help the soul of her best friend cross over and to free her of the demon that has possessed her. Before its too late.

With the help of Mark Burdette, will true love be enough to bring back Terra from the abyss? Or will everyone she has ever loved, perish under what she has become?

(Book 1 in the Dead Girl Hands Trilogy)

Book 2:Earthbound

Two months after her untimely demise, Terra can finally remember who she is, or rather, who she was. In a bittersweet turn of events, the demon that she is possessed by, offers to lend a helping hand to the detectives on her case, which have now turned their attentions to the man thought to be not only her killer, but the man who abducted her best friend after almost murdering the man she loves.

With the combined efforts of the only living man who can see her, will Terra be able to overpower the demon long enough for her best friend Amber to be found? Or will the Demon overpower them both, and decide its time for it to collect? And if her killer is brought to justice, will Terra ever be able to let go of the life that had been stolen from her, now that she knows the truth about the man she would die for, all over for?

Book 3:The Other Side

How many horrible things can happen to a person, before they finally crack, and their soul ultimately becomes torn? At sixteen years old, where most girls would be worrying about failing their drivers test, or passing school, she had more troublesome matters to deal with. It was because she wasn't like ordinary girls. She was dead.

After a bullet stole her life on one October morning, with the assistance of her best friend, and the love of her life, she has found the person responsible. And while other girls her age were worrying about getting their life off to good start, she was trying to keep the Demon who had possessed her not to kill anyone. Now, after being sent to Limbo to prevent the Demon from doing so, she is fighting to get back to the land of the living, to save her loved ones.

With a deadly secret boiling to the surface, her best friend Amber is the only living soul that may have a chance to help her. With her own agenda being pursued, will she make the right choice? Or will both Amber and Mark, be sent to limbo, due to a unseen danger, they thought had been long put to rest?
