Forget romance. Forget true love. Forget soulmates. If a woman wants a man to marry her, she needs to give him what he needs. Grandmothers said it first—and they were right. Men get married for reasons as basic as this: Food. Sex. Laundry. In this book, women learn that getting a man to walk down the aisle is easier than they think—that is, if they're willing to master the art of meatloaf. This controversial throwback of a marriage manual reveals the real reasons men marry—one meal, one tryst, and one football game at a time!
