'Tis the season for miracles, second chances, and love in a holiday novella that will charm and inspire! The second tale in Beth Ciotta's contemporary fairy tale series--Impossible Dream--celebrating hope, love, and the magic of the human spirit! Sensual romance with heart.

READER ADVISORY: Feel-good romance with humor and heart! Mild sexual content and profanity. For fans of quirky love stories.

JADED JOY...Once upon a time, Christmas (Chrissy) Mooney believed she'd set the world on fire as a concert violinist. Then she indulged in a whirlwind affair with a charismatic stranger--a gifted guitarist who declared them soul mates when they parted. She never imagined he'd turn his back on her when she contacted him to tell him she was pregnant. His betrayal scorched her faith in romantic love. And when her daughter was born deaf, Chrissy's passion for music died. Obsessed with creating a happy life for her girl, she ultimately lost her own sense of bliss--never realizing her growing cynicism until she reads her daughter's letter to Santa.

SEASONAL SPARKLE...Now, desperate to rediscover joy, Chrissy applies for help from an internet company--Impossible Dream.com (Making magic since 1956). When Mason Rivers blows back into Chrissy's life, rocking her with a revelation and a mission of his own, she's so busy shielding her heart that she's oblivious to the stirring magic. Until Mason points out the most basic ingredient for happiness... Believing is everything.
