I'm Right and You're Dumb! The Unauthorized Autobiography of Dick Cheney Kyle A. Hansley

Addressing Dick Cheney's life experiences from his own perspective, this book is both hilarious and incredibly informative. But don't confuse it with a biography; it's better. You'll be right there in the room as Cheney interviews for the top job at Halliburton; you'll hear how Cheney chooses himself as the V.P. nominee; you'll see Cheney's reaction throughout the unprecedented and unbelievable 2000 presidential election; you'll experience Bush and Cheney's moving adventure as they travel to the capital for the inauguration; you'll listen in as Cheney convenes a closed-door Energy Task Force meeting; you'll hear what Cheney says to Justice Scalia during their controversial hunting trip; you'll learn the real reason why Cheney shot his friend, why Valerie Plame was outed, why Brownie was appointed the Deputy Director of FEMA and why W. gave German Chancellor Angela Merkel a back rub. If you enjoy political humor and you're not a fan of the Bush-Cheney administration, buy this book.
