Whisper Quiet I: Creation Of The Beast Tim Longmire

WARNING: This book contains graphic descriptive violence and strong insensitive language that may be found offensive by some readers. Recommended for 18+. Hey the book is military based. It's about running, gunning, killing and getting even no matter what the cost, what else would you expect? You have to crack some eggs to bake a cake and you have to crack some heads to settle the score, or just blow them up, stab them, shoot them, you get the idea.

Raised in a dysfunctional home before dysfunctional was a catch phrase, Tex had walked through life never able to fit into society. He had acquired the ability at a young age to be both silent and invisible for self-preservation. An overbearing, demanding and violently abusive Father had hardened him. His Fathers violent reputation prevented people from reaching out to him to offer help or friendship for fear of retribution.

Immediately after graduating high school Tex escaped small town Texas and found a group of people that accepted him for whom he was. Accepted him as a brother and with open arms welcomed him into a new family. A family who had each other's back and supported each other no matter what the cost. A new-found family that allowed him to finally come into his own as a member of an Army Ranger sniper team, a bona fide, certified long distance killing machine with a long slow fuse. His life was good.

His best friend and mentor Zach, the veteran of the team, took young Tex under his wing. Becoming both a trainer and counselor imparting to Tex special skills and attention, concentrating on teaching Tex the compassion and control he had never been shown as a child. Zach had sensed from their first meeting the experts had missed something in their evaluations, a buried beast integral to Tex, a beast waiting to be awakened. He recognized that Tex's very soul is destined for a battle between God and Satan and at risk to be lost forever and Zach is determined to save it.

Through deceit and double cross Tex's new world was shattered, leading to a series of twisted events that transform him into a man driven by psychotic hate, revenge and murderous lust, with only one desire. To punish those that have hurt him, those that had violently taken everything he has grown to love or care for. To dole out pain and agony that only his warped mind and body can render. To use the skills he was taught in an adulterating manner that defies everything that is sane.

Denied any possibility of justice through societies legal systems, he has no recourse but to go around the law for his gratification. Tex's newly twisted and insane mind creates his own concept of a legal system and freely imposes his own form of a recurrently fatal justice. Enlist with him and his journey into an insanity that warps him into a person that you will truly despise and yet at the same time applaud in his efforts to toll out revenge, as he becomes that thing that silently goes bump in the night.

But one warning, leave the lights off, they make it easier for him to get you in his sights.
